Twin-Rib Cowl

designed by Ethel Weinberg, Irene Pechenik Hand Knits for Cascade Yarns

Twin-Rib Cowl

Yarn: Cash Vero, 2 skeins.

Gauge: 4 stitches = 1 inch in Stockinette stitch.

Needles: Circular, US size 7; circular or straight, US size 15.

Size: One size fits most women.

Finished circumference (unstretched): 17½ inches.

Finished length (unstretched): 14½ inches.

Cast on 84 stitches on size 7 circular needles, place marker to note beginning of round, and join, keeping stitches untwisted. Work first 6 rounds in border pattern. Work body in pattern stitch (for 11 inches). Work last 6 rounds in border pattern. Bind off loosely with size 15 needles. (This bound-off edge is the bottom of the cowl.)

Border Pattern (1x1 Rib)

Round 1: *K1, p1; rep fr * to end. Work a total of 6 rounds in border.

Body Pattern (Twin Rib, adapted from Barbara Walker's A Second Treasury of Knitting Patterns)

Round 1: *K3, p3; rep fr * to end.

Round 2: *K1, p1; rep fr * to end.

Repeat rounds 1 and 2 for 11 inches (or longer, if desired).
